

Membership Categories

Congregation Beth Israel is a house of religious, educational, cultural, social and recreational activities for the entire Jewish community. We are an active congregation with a warm and welcoming spirit. Should you decide you would like to join our congregation, we offer the following options for membership:

A Household Membership is offered to two Jewish adults* who reside in the same household, with or without dependent children. Dependent Jewish children are also deemed members.

An Individual Membership is extended to a Jewish adult who is either single, intermarried, or partnered with a non-Jewish adult. Dependent Jewish children are also deemed members. A non-Jewish spouse or partner, and non-Jewish dependent children, are eligible for Affiliate Membership.

An Affiliate Membership is offered to a non-Jewish spouse or partner of an Individual Member, as well as to non-Jewish dependent children.

Jewish persons who are members in good standing at another temple or synagogue are eligible for Associate Membership.

* Jewish adult is a person eighteen (18) years of age or older, who is born of a Jewish mother or has been converted to Judaism by a conversion in conformity with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism.

 Dependent children includes dependents through the age of twenty-five (25) who reside in the household and/or are full-time students.

If after reviewing this web site you have further questions, please contact the office at 810.732.6310 or cbiflint@tir.com. We look forward to hearing from you.