PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Now that Simchat Torah is over, we have come to the end of the High Holiday season. Not only did we return to the chapel for services, we also broadcast our services over Zoom/live stream.

I have heard only good things about the services. Both Josh Jacobs and Heather Seid, who led our services, were very well received by those who attended. Each of them were highly praised by our membership, and both of them had nice things to say about our membership. It was a mutual admiration society by all involved.

As I have repeatedly said, the Zooming/live streaming is a work in progress. Fortunately we had no glitches during the services, and we were able to reach people that we otherwise couldn't have been able to. We basically had full attendance in our chapel for all services. We had reservations for about thirty plus guests in the chapel for all services. On zoom we had as many as sixty screens open during peak times. That would mean that we had as many as ninety to a hundred people at services. That is a tremendous number, and all of us involved in the planning have been overjoyed. "Yasher koach" to all our participants, and a special "yasher koach" to Wendy Flamenbaum, Judy Kasle, and Beth Katz for all their time and effort in making everything possible.

Rabbi Schochet continues his interest in the congregation. I talk with him quite frequently, and we exchange ideas regarding Judaism and how best to serve our membership. I know he is also in contact with many members. It is particularly noteworthy that he still talks very positively about us to his students. Cantor Heather has been one of his students and she has said she learned much about the congregation from him before she even came to us.

It is possible that some of you may have ideas you would like to share with others. If you will send them along to me or Beth, we will make certain that we share your ideas through the bulletin and/or our emails.

On another note, you might notice that we are increasing our activities jointly with the Temple. Not only do we share facilities, we are increasing our cooperation with both the Temple and Federation. This past Shabbat, Sheldon and Hadar led a Friday evening service following a catered dinner. Also, during the Shabbat Selichot weekend a few weeks prior, CBI, TBE, and FJF co-sponsored multiple services featuring Noah Aronson, a well known artist and composer on the Jewish musical scene. We will continue to cooperate with each other through the year. Rabbi Ableser of TBE and Steve and Susan Low are greatly enthusiastic about such cooperation. Rabbi and Shainie Weingarten of Chabad also sponsor programs of community interest and I personally find it most gratifying that we are able to co-operate/participate with them also.

I'm not giving away any secrets when I say that the political world is all messed up – not only here in the U.S., but everywhere in the world. Consequently, whenever we have activities, we have security present. It is a shame we have to do this, but we have to protect ourselves from those "crazies" out to do us harm.

On a health note, we don't know what the future will be regarding Covid. We want to be as safe as possible. We ask everybody to wear masks when in the building. We will continue to have events in the building as long as it is safe to do so. We are prepared to make adjustments should the situation require us to do so.

The next holiday on the Jewish calendar will be Chanukah. We will keep you posted on various events as they are scheduled. The secular holiday of Thanksgiving will take place this year about a month before Chanukah.

We're Goin' to the Chapel!!!

Thanks to the ritual committee, especially Wendy Flamenbaum, for working over the summer to get our new high-tech video system set up in the chapel. Our services are now in-person AND on Zoom.

We hope these options will encourage greater attendance. These past two years have demonstrated that loyalty to CBI extends far beyond Flint! Watch for the Zoom link which will arrive in your inbox on Thursdays.

Please join us this coming Shabbat and spread the word. A small kiddush will follow the service.

Reducing Our Footprint

Beginning in November we will be sending statements and Yahrzeit reminders via email.

The Yahrzeit reminders will be for those observing according to the Hebrew date of the deceased. The email will also include the English date and when to light your candles.

There will also be a "Donate Button" in the email where you will be directed to a secure site to make a donation, if you choose to, or to make a payment on your account.

If you do not have an email address, your Yahrzeit reminders and statements will continue to be mailed. If you would like to provide us with an email, all future communications can be emailed to you.

Have a wonderful fall season. I hope to see you either in person or on screen. Stay safe! Stay well!

B'Shalom,

Leonard Meizlish

EXCITING MITZVAH OPPORTUNITY Helping Ukranian Youth

ENGIN is a nonprofit organization that connects Ukrainian youth with English speaking volunteers for free 1-on-1 online English language practice and cross-cultural exchange.

Since launching in March 2020, it has served more than 10,000 Ukrainian students. You can learn more about its work at www.enginprogram.org.

Rose Tatum, Volunteer Manager at ENGIN, is reaching out because they have an urgent need for volunteers. All English speakers are welcome to volunteer with us; training and resources are provided, and no prior experience or knowledge of Ukrainians is needed.

The commitment is just one hour per week (volunteers choose the day and time). Anyone age 14 and older is eligible, though the greatest need is for adult volunteers.

Volunteering with ENGIN is incredibly rewarding as our volunteers are making lasting impacts in the lives of Ukrainians by equipping them with skills needed to access better academic and professional opportunities, and eventually rebuild their country.

With peace and gratitude,

Rose Tatum, Volunteer Manager, ENGIN

We're so happy to announce that Thursday Morning Minyan is Back!!!

Grab a cup of coffee and a bagel and join us as we attend Minyan via Zoom at 8 AM on Thursday mornings. Watch your email for log-in information from Beth.

Hope to see you at Minyan!

Inspirational Music Filled the Halls

On September 16 and 17, the community enjoyed an inspiring artist-in-residence weekend featuring recording artist, composer, performer and intentional mover Noah Aronson. Noah creates music and interactive experiences at the intersection of wellness and creativity. It was a fabulous weekend!

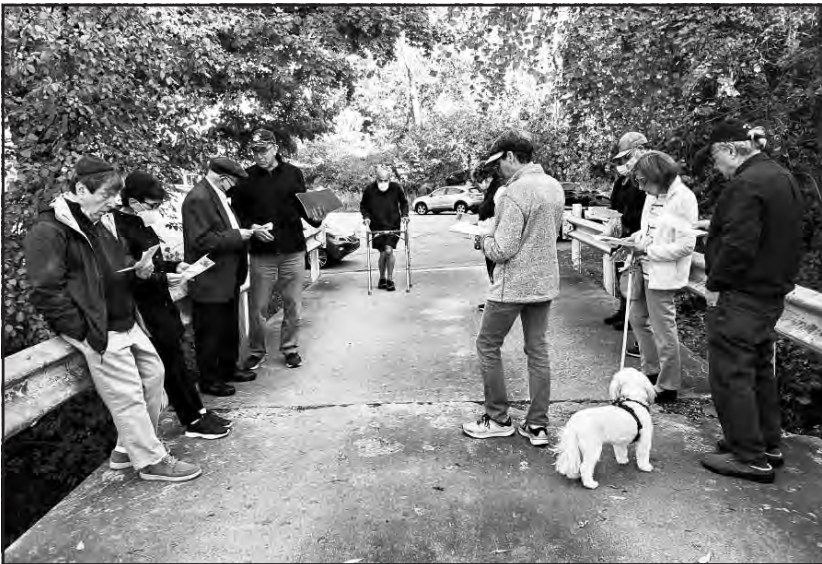

All the Jews Gathered as One in the Street that is in front of the Gate of Water

–Nehemiah (8:1)

We enjoyed a beautiful evening on October 2 as we observed Tashlich by casting away our sins into the creek from the “Steinman” bridge on Stonegate Parkway.

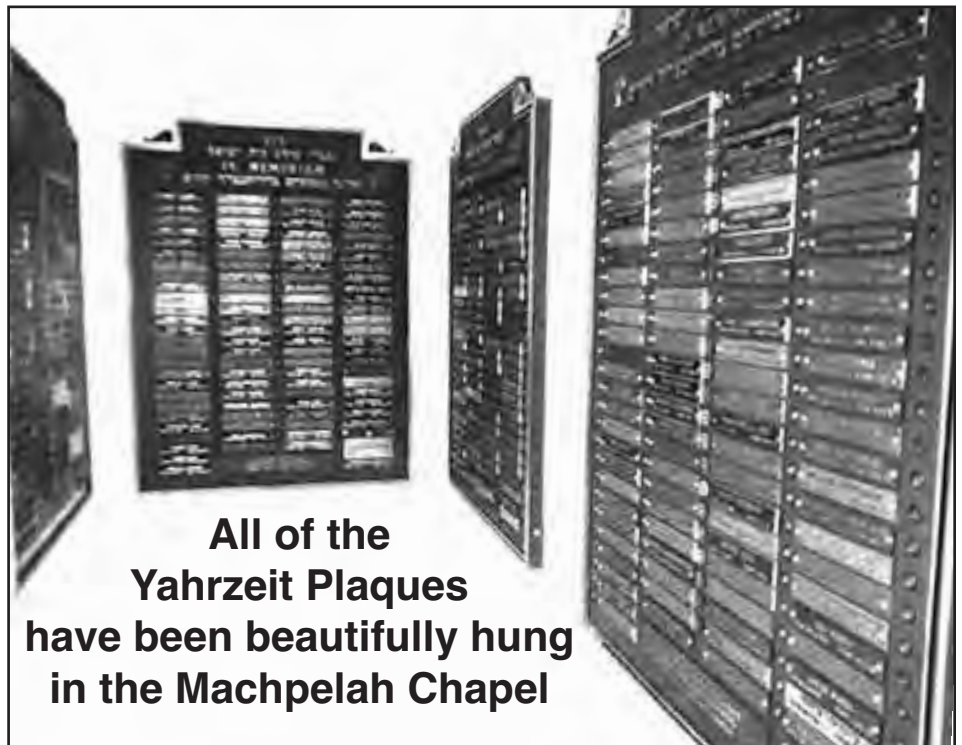

When the service concluded, we gathered at the Valley Bistro for dinner.

Yahrzeit Plaques

It's tradition at CBI to commemorate the passing of a loved one with a memorial Yahrzeit plaque. Plaques are inscribed with the English and Hebrew names of the departed, along with the date of death in both the standard and Hebrew calendars. Beside each plaque is a memorial light, which is lit annually on the Yahrzeit and during Yizkor services.

A Yahrzeit plaque may be purchased through the office at a cost of $360. Call Beth if you are interested in ordering one, 810-732-6310.

All of the Yahrzeit Plaques have been beautifully hung in the Machpelah Chapel

Hadar Quartet Streaming Concert

December 24, 2022 • 8:00 PM

NYC-based artist Hadar, and her quartet, are doing it again! Taking the virtual stage on December 24 at 8:00PM, Hadar and her band of NYC Jewish musicians are shining a new light on the unique contribution made by female Jewish writers to the distinctly American invention of jazz and the Great American Songbook like you've never seen before!

Spanning the works of Betty Comden to Carolyn Leigh, Ann Ronell to Ruth Lowe and many more, Hadar and her all-star band breathe new life into some of the most iconic songs in history!

The concert will be virtual and a secured private link will be shared the day before the event.

Witchcraft – Jewish Women of The Great American Songbook!

A Fun Way to Spend Christmas Day

Challah and Chinese Dinner

Idan Chabasov, the Challah Prince, will lead a Challah making workshop which will be followed by a traditional Jewish Community Christmas Day Chinese dinner at Temple Beth El on Sunday, December 25.

Join us for a fun program of braiding and sculpting our prepared Challah dough and enjoying a delicious dinner while our loaves bake! Cost: $20 per person. Times and other details to follow. Call or email the Flint Jewish Federation at 810-767-5922 or ashleymusser@flintfed.org for more information or to make your reservation.

Who is the Challah Prince?

Idan Chabasov, aka the Challah Prince, does not trace his love of challah baking back to a family tradition. There was no aroma of freshly baked challah in the kitchens of either his Turkish or Bukharin grandmothers nor in the Tel Aviv home where he grew up. Cooking and baking was not an interest he ever pursued.

Fast forward to his mid-30s and the Challah Prince Instagram account, set up in January 2020, now boasts over 70,000 followers. Chabasov was excited to travel to the US four times this year to do workshops and hold a popup in the restaurant of a well-known New York chef. His regular online workshops are full of participants from all over the world and, in Israel, the influencer will soon appear in an ad campaign for a credit card company.

Chabasov started to bake challah after he moved to Berlin in 2014. "I began going to small Shabbat dinners for Israelis in the city. Once I remember looking at the table and realizing there was regular bread but no challah. So I decided to take it upon myself to be the one to bake and bring challah each week. Every Friday I would also go to my German neighbors and give them a freshly baked challah. At first, they thought it was bizarre that anyone would bring them food as it's not a custom people are used to doing, as we are in Israel. In the end, they were so appreciative."

It's easy to see why the Challah Prince brand has many admirers. Chabasov's intricately braided challot, which can include weaving an impressive 17 strands, are traditional but innovative. Each creation shows off his artistry in its unbaked form or a mouthwatering golden brown. Chabasov explains. "Challah making is a special process of observation and patience. I always stress in my workshops that it's the journey and not the outcome which is important. Eating it, in the end, is just a bonus."

Sisterhood BETH ISRAEL

Sisterhood's Ongoing Multi-Goal Mitzvah!

Do you have an overabundance of plastic shopping bags? Are your plastic bags filled with more plastic bags, and those enormous stuffed plastic bags are taking up space in your home?

There is a need for these plastic bags—they can be reused!

A community outreach food program needs 800 bags per week to distribute food!

Please take your plastic bags filled with plastic bags, and leave them in the bin (marked: plastic bag donations) outside the front door of Temple Beth El. They will be delivered to the food outreach program. Then start refilling your plastic grocery bags with more plastic bags, and do it again and again!

What an easy mitzvah! Please spread the word!

Your annual Sisterhood dues are only $18 this year!

If you haven't already paid, please make your check payable to Beth Israel Sisterhood and mail it to:

Mind University – Exercise your Brain

All of us who are lucky enough to live a long life will experience some form of age-related cognitive decline. This is not indicative of developing a dementia, but nonetheless may take the form of a decline in memory that makes us feel forgetful. A change in our visual spatial skills may make parking challenging. A weakening in our ability to tune out distractions may make it hard to concentrate. Slight changes in our language and problem-solving abilities sometimes causes us to fall victim to scams targeting seniors.

While not significant enough to impair our ability to function, these slight but noticeable changes are simply signs of an aging healthy brain, no more surprising than needing reading glasses in our fifties. The question is, can we embrace that as a badge of honor, which frees us up to talk openly about what helps and what doesn't, which is the usual approach for non-cognitive aging issues such as joint pain and difficulty sleeping? If you're feeling inspired and ready to take action to slow this cognitive decline, now is the perfect time. Cognitive training is not simply doing crossword puzzles or playing games on our phones. One of the best steps you can take is to sign up for a cognitive training course. The right kind of cognitive stimulation is critical. Just like we exercise our bodies to be as strong as possible as we age, there are specific exercises we can do to have our cognition as strong as possible!

A rigorous curriculum of these exercises strengthens each of the areas of our cognition that we count on every day. These areas include:

Reaction Time

Memory (4 different types)

Visual Spatial Skills

Language

Attention & Concentration

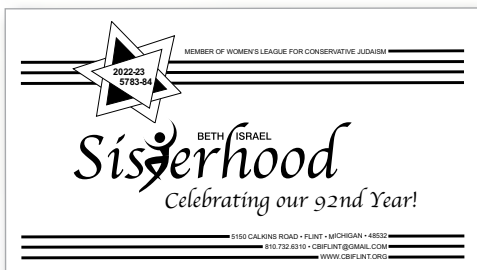

Problem Solving

We are very lucky to have access to fun and engaging cognitive training classes in the Flint and Genesee County area, licensed through the New England Cognitive Center and facilitated by the Detroit Jewish Family Service staff and Flint Jewish Federation Staff.

If you would like to learn more EMAIL Susan Low at shlow@sbcglobal.net and REGISTER for one of the Zoom presentations by Lynn Breuer LMSW, CDP who will show us how we can strengthen our overall cognition to help us age well. Zoom informational sessions will be held: Tuesday, November 8 at 7:00 PM; Thursday, November 10 at 2:30 PM; and Thursday, December 8 at 2:30 PM.

Classes will be forming soon, consisting of fun, challenging, research-proven exercises for your brain. And best of all...there are no workout clothes required!

Honoring the Dream

WE HAVE LOST A BELOVED MEMBER

As long as we live, she too will live; for she is now a part of us; as we remember her.

Roslyn Sylvia Sugarman

March 18, 1927 ~ September 18, 2022

Roslyn Sylvia Sugarman passed away quietly and peacefully with her family by her side on September 18 at the age of 95. Roslyn was born on March 18, 1927 in Detroit, the daughter of Sol and Freda (Berman) Rosenfeld. She married Isadore Sugarman on June 30, 1946 in Flint. He preceded her in death on March 25, 2003.

Roslyn was raised in Flint and had resided in Grand Blanc the past 20 years. She was a member of Congregation Beth Israel, was a past president of Women's City of Hope, and volunteered at Hurley Medical Center with the NICU. Roslyn was loved by anyone who ever met her. She is survived by her four children: Bronna Porzio of Grand Blanc; Dr. Charles (Cynthia) Sugarman of Ft. Thomas, KY; Robin Sugarman of Flint; and Hali Sugarman-Klonel (Rob Klonel) of Los Angeles, CA. She also leaves seven grandchildren, Jason, Anna, Noah, Bren, Freyda, Andrew and Kira; and five great-grandchildren, Charlie, Stella, Simone, Taj and Izzy.

Services were held in the chapel at Machpelah Cemetery, Flint, with Rabbi Yisroel Weingarten and Leonard Meizlish officiating. Those desiring may make contributions to Congregation Beth Israel, Flint.

z'il May her memory be for a blessing.

Our sincere condolences also go out to the families of Russell Deutsch who passed away on September 23 at the age of 64. Russell leaves his devoted wife, Sheryl to whom he was married for 36 years; children Michael and Julie Deutsch; grandson Jaxon Deutsch; sister Michelle (Dr. Alan) Angel; brother Stuart (Lauren Wolf) Deutsch; nieces, nephews and many close friends. Funeral services were held at Temple Beth El, Flint, with Rabbi Jeff Ableser officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Flint Jewish Federation or to a charity that touches your heart.

Raisa Petrovna Osipchuk, age 75, who died on September 24. She is survived by her sons Boris and Alexander, and brother Leonid Osipchuk. Services were held at Machpelah Cemetery, Flint, with Rabbi Yisroel Weingarten officiating.

Barbara Wolin Kirshner who passed on October 12. Barbara was the wife of Rabbi Sherman Phillip Kirshner (z'l) for 54 years. She was also the mother of: Rabbi Gabriel Kirshner (z'l); Elliott and Connie Kirshner of Marietta, Georgia; Larry and Missy Kirshner of Commerce, Michigan; and Rabbi David-Seth and Dori Kirshner of Closter, NJ. She leaves nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Barbara also leaves two sisters: Toby Katz of Flint and Manya Wolin Abrams of Chicago; and a brother Sheldon Wolin (Carol) of Grand Blanc. Funeral services were held at Machpelah Cemetery, Flint. Rabbi Steven Rubenstein officiated.

May their memories be for a blessing.

Prayer in Place of Mourner's Kaddish

When a Minyan Cannot Gather (to be used in exigent circumstances only)

רְבוֹנוֹ שֶׁל עוֹלָם,

אֱלֹהֵי הָרוּחֹת לְכָל-בָּשָׂר

Ribbono shel olam,

elohei ha-ruhot l'khol basar —

Master of the world, God of the spirit of all flesh, it is revealed and known before You that it is my fervent desire to praise Your name, and to remember and honor my beloved:

father/mother/son/daughter/husband/wife/partner/brother/sister/_____ {the name and relation of the person may be inserted} by reciting the Mourner's Kaddish in the company of a Minyan. Though circumstances prevent me from doing so, may my yearning and prayers find favor in Your eyes, and be accepted and received before You as if I had prayed that Kaddish.

May you grant hope and healing to all who suffer, and may we soon be able to once again safely gather in holiness and joy.

May Your name Adonai, be elevated and sanctified everywhere on earth and may peace reign everywhere.

עֲשֵׂה שָׁלוֹם בְּמִרְוֵמֵי

הוּא יַעֲשֶׂה שָׁלוֹם עָלֵינוּ

וְעַל כָּל-יִשְׂרָאֵל [וְעַל כָּל-

יוֹשְׁבֵי תֵבֵל], וְאָמְרוּ אָמֵן.

Oseh shalom bimromav

hu ya-aseh shalom aleinu

v'al kol yisrael [v'al kol

yosh'vei teiveil], v'imru amen.

LIFE & LEGACY®

Assuring JEWISH TOMORROWS

A program of the HAROLD GRINSPOON FOUNDATION

"As my parents planted for me before I was born, so do I plant for those who will come after me."

—TALMUD

HOW WILL YOU ASSURE JEWISH TOMORROWS?

Congregation Beth Israel, Temple Beth El and Flint Jewish Federation are participating in the LIFE & LEGACY® program of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation (HGF). We are trying to elicit legacy gifts that will ensure a flourishing Jewish community into the future. Our goal is to obtain eighteen gifts, memorialized by Letters of Intent, for each partner. Each institution that secures eighteen gifts during the year will obtain a $5,000 bonus from HGF.

Leonard Meizlish is happy to share more information about LIFE & LEGACY with you at your convenience. Contact him at leonardmeizlish1@gmail.com or 810-733-8090.

We hope you enjoyed the Rosh Hashanah bags that the Sisterhood woman delivered to you as much as we enjoyed making them!!!
